Player	Contract Length
Sam Bennett	8 seasons
Brad Marchand	6 seasons
Aaron Ekblad	8 seasons
Aleksander Barkov	5 seasons
Matthew Tkachuk	5 seasons

This strong core, complemented by other prominent players like Carter Verhaeghe and Gus Forsling, not only highlights Zito's vision but also cements the Panthers' reputation as a sturdy franchise that is now favored for next season. The last team to pull off a three-peat was the New York Islanders from 1980 to 1983, a record the Panthers aim to challenge.

As the excitement builds and preparations continue, it's clear that the Florida Panthers are more than just a team —they are becoming a formidable dynasty, with the goal of etching their name in the annals of hockey history.
